

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

ESTABLISHED 1833.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 10, 1885.

PRICE THREE CENTS

Narrow Escape.

ROCHESTER, June 1, 1882. "Ten years ago I was attacked with the most intense and deadly pains in my back and kidneys."

"Extending to the end of my toes and my brain!"
"Which made me delirious!"
"From agony!"
"It took three men to hold me on my bed at times!"

"The doctors tried in vain to relieve me, but to no purpose."
"Morphine and other opiates!"
"Had no effect!"
"After two months I was given up to die!"

When my wife heard a neighbor tell what Hop Bitters had done for her, she at once got and gave me some. The first dose eased my brain and seemed to go hunting through my system for the pain.

The second dose eased me so much that I slept two hours, something I had not done for two months. Before I had used five bottles, I was well and at work as hard as any man could, for over three weeks; but I worked too hard for my strength, and taking a hard cold, I was taken with the most acute and painful rheumatism all through my system that ever was known.

"I called the doctors again, and after several weeks they left me a cripple on crutches, for life, as they said. I met a friend and told him my case, and he said Hop Bitters had cured him and would me. I pooled at him, but he was so earnest I was induced to use them again."

In less than four weeks I threw away my crutches and went to work lightly and kept on using the Bitters for five weeks, until I became as well as any man living and have been so for six years since.

It has also cured my wife, who had been sick for years; and has kept her and my children well and healthy with from two to three bottles per year. There is no need to besic at all if these Bitters are used.

J. J. BERR, Ex-supervisor.
"That poor invalid wife, sister, mother, or daughter!"
"Can be made the picture of health!"
"With a few bottles of Hop Bitters!"
"Will you let them suffer!"

Prostrate the Sentinel!!
If when you call for Hop Bitters the druggist hands out anything but "Hop Bitters," with a green cluster of Hops on white label, shun that druggist as you would a viper; and if he has taken your money for a bogus stuff, indict him for the fraud and sue him for damages for the swindle, and we will reward you liberally for the conviction.

See U. S. Court injunction against C. D. Warner, Reading, Mich., and all his salesmen, agents, druggists, and other imitators.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION.

A meeting is hereby called for Monday evening, Oct. 12, at 7:30 o'clock, of the members, pewholders and congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of organizing said congregation into a corporation for church purposes under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Indiana, and for the further purpose of authorizing the Trustees to negotiate a loan of $20,000 upon the property of the society. Said meeting will be held in the recently finished lecture room of the new church.

By order of the BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Oct. 8-31

PRINCESS RINK. EXTRA.

Thursday Evening, October 22, 1885,

Grand Festival Concert.

THEODORE THOMAS

And the Unrivaled

Thomas Orchestra of Sixty Musicians,

Assisted by the following Eminent Soloists, who have repeatedly appeared with Mr. Thomas in his great Symphony and Festival Concerts:

MISS EMMA ZUCH, SOPRANO.

MR. ALBERT PAULET, TENOR.

NOTICE.—The advance sale of seats will begin Thursday morning, Oct. 15, at 8 o'clock, at Woodward's drug store.

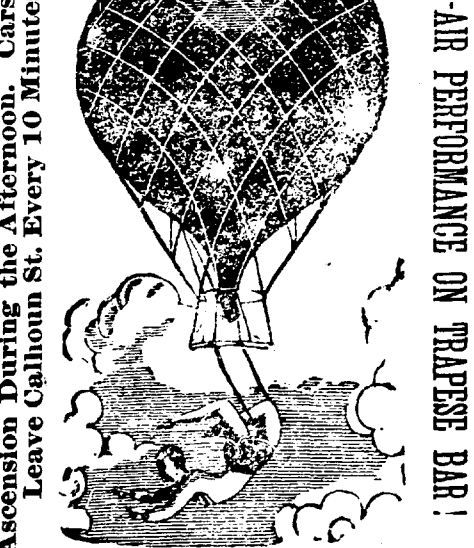

Prices.—One Dollar, and no extra charge for reserving seats in advance.

For further particulars address Foote & O'Connor, 92 Calhoun street, Fort Wayne, Ind.

The Closing of the Season With a Grand

FREE BALLOON ASCENSION!

At the East End Brewery, Sunday, Oct. 11.

BY PROF. I. N. FISK,
In his Monster Balloon, being 90 feet high and 150 in circumference. The ascension will be made on a Single Trapeze Bar, as represented above. It will be inflated by the new, rapid and exciting process recently invented, consuming only thirty minutes time in calm weather to fill the monster aerial ship.

SCAVENGERING.

I am prepared to attend to the cleaning of out houses. Address,

JOHN KANEMANN,

June 22-2m 15 McClellan Street.

A BLOODY STRIKE

The St. Louis Street Car Trouble Winds Up in a Very Bad Way.

The Conflicting Interests Submitted to a Committee of Business Men.

Edward Hawkins Appointed Federal Marshal of Indiana—Another Hoosier Sent Abroad.

QUIET AGAIN.

The Great Street Car Strike at St. Louis.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—This morning's developments in the street car strike were much more quiet than had been expected. There was no rioting or trouble during the night, although there had been a double platoon of police in waiting all night.

The business men's committee appointed to arbitrate between the strikers and street car presidents met and were joined by a committee of five men from the Knights of Labor, headed by Casper Heep, secretary of the executive board of the Knights of Labor who have been practically managing the street car strike. The latter said the strike was precipitated by the refusal of the street car officials to negotiate with the men. They would adhere to the demands for twelve hours a day and twenty cents an hour for extra labor. They took no account of the earnings of the road, but demanded fair wages for all employees.

Mr. Heep says the conductors demand $2 per day, and drivers $1.75. The committee then took recess. The lines were all running at noon, having about two-thirds the usual number of cars in operation, each being guarded by two policemen.

Charles Green, president of the People's railway, reported to the mayor that a mob had gathered at his barn on Park avenue and that the drivers were being intimidated. Chief of Police Harrigan immediately telephoned to run cars through, no matter how many policemen it required.

Witnesses say that the shooting was unjustifiable and that Policeman Hannon shot the man in the back of the head while Policeman Griffith was holding him down on the ground. The men arrested for mixing in yesterday's riots were fined in sums aggregating $20 and costs each in police court.

THE RIOT LAST NIGHT.

St. Louis, October 9.—The first really serious event and one involving loss of life, occurred about 3 o'clock this afternoon, on Stoddard avenue. One of the cars of the union depot line was coming up the avenue, in charge of policeman Griffiths and Hannon, and when near Hickory street it was surrounded by some fifty men, who began to cut the harness and make other demonstrations. The officers twice ordered the men to desist, but they paid no attention to the command and assaulted the officers with sticks and rocks. Hannon was struck with a rock and Griffiths was knocked down by a man named John Hovey. While the latter was beating Griffiths Hannon drew a pistol and shot him in the head killing him. The body of Hovey was taken to the morgue and Hannon went to headquarters and reported the affair and was placed in arrest. Hovey was a bricklayer, but has been driving a car on the Lindell road of late. Four of the rioters in the Twelfth Street bridge affair, four of those who upset the cars on Washington avenue and six of those who stopped the cars on O'Fallon street were arrested this afternoon and locked up. The prisoners were quite defiant, but when they found they would be confined in the "holdover" and not released on bail, they cooled down and were more docile.

Wm. Jackson, chief clerk of the Arlington hotel, at Hot Springs, Arkansas, while going to the fair grounds in a Cass avenue car, was struck by a rock during the riot and had his jaw badly fractured. Henry Cyurgor, a prominent citizen, was also struck in the face with a rock and received a severe wound.

None of the roads involved in the strike are running cars to-night, they having suspended operations as a precautionary measure. They will resume to-morrow, but no demons' rage was made by strikers to-night. The executive board of the Knights of Labor sent a committee of six men to visit the presidents of the railroads to-day, but they will not reveal the result. The police board at an executive meeting this afternoon ordered fifty special policemen put on duty to-morrow. At the meeting of leading business men to-day to consider the strike situation a committee of five prominent merchants was appointed, to sit at three separate hours to-morrow to hear statements from the railway officials and the strikers or men employed on the railroads. When these statements are made, the committee will report to the general citizens' committee for final action.

FIGURED UP.

The Crop Yield Estimated at Washington.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—The department of agriculture reports that the yield of wheat per acre for the area harvested is ten and one-half bushels, and only nine on an area was sown which was nearly 40,000,000 acres. The area harvested will not exceed 34,000,000 acres. The corn indications point to a yield of twenty-six and one-half bushels per acre, which would give a yield of 1,960,000,000 bushels. The oat crop exceeds 600,000 bushels. The cotton condition has dropped from 87 to 78 per cent.

The president to-day made the following appointments of United States marshals: David R. Waters, of Michigan, for the western district of Michigan; Edward Hawkins, for Indiana, vice Robert T. Foster.

DIPLOMATIC AND OTHER APPOINTMENTS.

The president this afternoon made the following appointments: Charles D. Jacobs of New York, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States, to the United States of Columbia; Charles Foster of Indiana, consul-general to Calcutta; D. J. Partello of the District of Columbia, consul to Dusseldorf; Wm. J. Henderson of Arkansas, associate Justice of the Supreme court, of New Mexico; Daniel W. Marrats, of Dakota, Marshal of the United States, for the territory of Dakota; Thomas Smith, of Virginia, Attorney of the United States, for the territory of New Mexico; Charles Parlang, of Louisiana, Attorney of the United States for the eastern district of Louisiana.

WHO MR. FOSTER IS.

Charles Foster appointed consul general to Calcutta was a clerk in the office of state statistician of Indiana, for several years. During the last campaign he was the chief editorial writer of the Indianapolis Telegraph, a leading German paper. He has never been an aspirant for office and his appointment was made in deference to the wishes of the German element of the Democrat party in Indiana.

RELIGIOUS.

There will be no preaching in the Third Presbyterian church to-morrow. Sunday school at the usual hour.

Trinity church, Rev. W. N. Webber. Services at 10:45 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Strangers cordially invited.

Berry street M. E. church services by the pastor at 10:30 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school at 2 p. m. All will be made welcome.

All railroad and factory men are cordially invited to attend the Sabbath service at the Railroad Reading rooms at 3:30 p. m. standard time.

There will be preaching morning and evening in the new lecture room of the First Presbyterian church to-morrow. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.

At Simpson M. E. Church.—Morning service, social meetings and Sunday school as usual. Sermon in the evening by Rev. C. C. Albertson. A cordial invitation to all.

The stoves have been set up for winter service in the Railroad Reading rooms and they are now very warm and pleasant and the railroad and factory men through there as usual.

There is preaching to-morrow morning at the Christian chapel, corner of Griffith and Jefferson streets, at 10:30. The subject of the evening lecture is "Falling from Grace." Seats and lecture free.

Grace Reformed church services at the accustomed hour. Morning subject, "The Sorrowful Young Man." Evening subject, "The Perpetuity of the Word of God." Come, and welcome, all.

"Building" will be the subject of both morning and evening discourses at the Congregational church to-morrow. Services at 10:30 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 2 p. m. Young peoples meeting at 6:45 p. m.

Services at Trinity M. E. church, corner Cass and Fourth street, to-morrow, at 10:30 a. m., and 7 p. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Reception of probationers into full membership at the morning service. All are cordially welcomed to all these services.

Attention, young men! Did you attend the services at the Princess rink last Sunday afternoon? If so, and you have no church home, you will be royally welcomed to-morrow evening at the Baptist church by Pastor Northrup and his young men. Strangers, railroad men and their families and business men also are heartily invited to both morning and evening services.

The John Shaffer, mentioned as having violated the liquor law, is not John Shaffer of Grand street. He does not violate the law.

Mr. Rufus Rayhouser has recovered from his recent illness and is able to be out.

A Doctor's Patients.

Why is a doctor better taken care of than his patients? Because when he goes to bed some one is sure to wrap him up. The prudent doctor advises his patients to keep Dr. Bigger's Huckleberry Cordial to relieve sudden attacks of the bowels.

A GREAT PRIEST.

His Eminence, Cardinal McCloskey, Passes From this Life in a Peaceful Way.

His Body Has Been Embalmed and the Funeral to Occur Thursday.

A Huge Serpent is Seen and Described by a Captain Just in From Sea.

A PRELATE GONE.

Death of His Eminence Cardinal McCloskey.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

New York, October 10, 1 a. m.—Cardinal McCloskey died at 12:30 this morning, peacefully, surrounded by his relatives and the clergy of his church.

New York, October 9.—At three o'clock Dr. Keyes said his patient had failed more rapidly, during the twelve hours past, than in the preceding forty-eight hours. He did not think it probable that the patient would survive Sunday, should he live until then.

New York, October 9, midnight.—Reports from the death watch, at Cardinal McCloskey's house, is to effect that his death may occur to-night.

About midnight the lights began flashing from the various rooms in the Cardinal's house, and to the groups waiting outside there came the consciousness that the unusual activity inside was an indication of the approach of the closing scene, at 12:30 a nervous twitching of the muscles of the dying man's face was observed and the household drew nearer. The doctor bent by the bedside and constantly felt the rapidly flickering pulse. The Rev. Monsignors prayed fervently and repeated invocations for the dying. At half past twelve the scene was one simply of waiting. On one side of the bed were the Cardinal's nieces, Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Cleary, and on the other side was Miss McCloskey and Miss Mullen, the latter another niece. Behind them and standing almost in a circle, were Monsignors Farley, Preston and Quinn, Archbishop Corrigan, Dr. McDonald, Father Don Breese, and the assistant priests attached to the cathedral, reciting prayers for the dying. Dr. Keyes at the head of the bed anxiously watched the patient, who was unconscious and still held in his hand a crucifix. At 12:50 a. m. the end came and so peacefully and painlessly that those who watched scarcely knew that the great change had come until Dr. Keyes signified that all was over and that the Cardinal was dead. Then the butler, Walsh, ushered forth to a cab the venerable Rev. Don Breese. The servants' eyes were wet and Dr. Keyes, who supported the reverend father on one side said to the waiting crowd, "The Cardinal is dead." Monsignor Preston remained with the relatives and offered prayers for the repose of the dead prelate's soul. The other dignitaries and priests departed after the death.

THE FUNERAL.

The body of the deceased cardinal has been embalmed and removed to the cathedral, where he will lie in state until Thursday morning, when the funeral will take place at 10:30. Archbishop Corrigan will celebrate mass and Bishop Gibbons, of Baltimore, will deliver an address.

BLAZING HIGH.

Disastrous Fire Out in Nebraska.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PRIOR, Neb., Oct. 10.—A terrible and widespread prairie fire is raging in the northeastern part of this county and in the adjoining counties of Cedar, Wayne and Knox. A high wind has been blowing for the last twenty-four hours. The great fire is traveling with remarkable rapidity. Hay on every farm in the course of the fire has been swept off. Many settlers have lost their barns, sheds and out houses, and one man his dwelling place.

ANOTHER ONE.

BISMARCK, Dak., Oct. 10.—Three prairie fires were started near this city yesterday, it is thought by sparks from engines on the Northern Pacific road. One fire was started within the city limits and passing north destroyed a large amount of property and is still raging and beyond the control of farmers.

A SEA SERPENT.

Graphically Described by a Sea Captain.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

New York, Oct. 10.—Capt. A. N. Smith, of the schooner E. H. Harriman, which arrived a few hours ago, after a twelve days voyage from Nuevitas reports that the vessel met a genuine sea serpent on the fourth day out. The captain says: "In latitude 31 degrees and 10 minutes, longitude 74 degrees 30 minutes, I saw what at first I thought to be a school of whales but by close observation I knew it was some other great thing. It was coming toward us without spouting and with more than railroad speed. It came up from leeward and as soon as it got within half a mile of us it sank and again made its appearance two miles to windward. I now discovered that it was a sea serpent with three very large bumps on his back about seventy-five feet apart. The whole serpent must have been at least three hundred feet long, of a black color and is doubtless what so many sea captains have reported to be an island in the gulf stream. I now believe in the sea serpent. It may look like a fish story, but it certainly was more than three hundred feet long."

LOCAL LINES.

Read Talmage's sermon on another page. It will do you good.

Ten big fire which destroyed Chicago began fourteen years ago last Thursday night.

Henry Immell is after the fellow who stole a duck and two pounds of butter from his pantry.

James A. Racine and Jessie Cartwright, Charles Houser and Addie Gottschall have been licensed to wed.

Mrs. George R. Hench, wife of the former of THE SENTINEL composing room, is very low with typhoid fever.

Mr. Henry C. Brooks, the superintendent of the government building at Jackson, Miss., left for Jackson to-day.

At New Haven wheat is worth 87 cents; Payne, 85; Willshire, 80; Decatur, 85; Fort Wayne, 91; and Monroeville, 78 and 80.

Mr. Geo. H. Sattler, of Lafayette, and Miss Katie Schmetzer, daughter of M. F. Schmetzer, of Pixley & Co., will be married in this city on the 15th inst.

The case of Hilberg vs. Moellering comes up at Auburn Monday a week. Hilberg was struck by a falling wall of the old First Presbyterian church here and sues for $5,000.

Ralph Frieberg and Prince Wells, styled "Bicyclists and Unicyclists," give an entertainment at the Princess rink October 16, under the management of the Fort Wayne Bicycle club.

Judge S. M. Hench is at home and not a bit married. A few members of THE SENTINEL staff will be temporarily absent from the city, as the eminent jurist does not take kindly to these marriage affairs.

The Darlington Bros., professional skaters, will be given a benefit at Princess rink October 17. The Fort Wayne boys talk of joining a combination with Miss Carrie Hill and Miss Fike to travel as a quartet.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to the SENTINEL, are as follows: Lower lake region, fair weather, followed Sunday by local rains, nearly stationary temperature, southerly winds becoming variable, lower barometer.

Meyer Bros. & Co., report that their sales during September were larger than ever before in that month since the organization of their firm. The principal houses of this firm are located at St. Louis and Kansas City. Two-thirds of the population of the Mississippi valley never looked upon a bottle that did not have the name "Meyer Bros." blown into the glass.

Rev. Albertson, of New Haven, and Rev. Murray, of this city, while driving between New Haven and Maples this morning, met with a narrow escape from serious injury or death by the breaking of a wheel of the carriage, causing the horse to run away, overturning the vehicle and dragging the gentlemen several rods. The harness giving way the buggy became detached and the vines crawled from the wreck unharmed. The buggy was badly damaged.

Dr. James S. Gregg to Theodore F. Thieme, lot 29, Hanna's addition, for $2,500; Perry A. Randall to Mary Aufrecht, lot 17, Bass and Hanna's addition for $850; Carrie Michael to Della E. Evans, lot 54, Rockhill and Nelson's addition, for $3,500; Christina L. Ward to Henry Tur Muehlen, lot 47, old plat, for $5,000; Henry Tur Muehlen to Horatio N. Ward, lot 47, old plat, for $5,000; Wilhelm Bierbaum to Frederick R. Schowa, lot 27, Bond's second addition for $1,200. These are the city real estate transfers.

"Hope springs eternal in the human breast," and thousands who suffer the pangs of rheumatism have had their hopes of a cure realized by the use of St. Jacobs Oil.

BLEW IT UP.

Hell Gate With its Rocks and Glistening Water Lifted Into the Air.

The Huge Mass Propelled by 280,000 Pounds of Dynamite and an Electric Spark.

The Explosion Said to be a Grand Success--It is Nicely Described.

A RATTLER.

Hell Gate Sent to the Sky.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

New York, Oct. 10, 11:13 a. m.—The 280,000 pounds of dynamite under the flood rock of Hell Gate has just been exploded. The shock was plainly felt at the lower end of Manhattan Island.

At 11 o'clock there was still a number of people on the flood rock, a few moments later, however, a terrific explosion took place, and at precisely 11:13 o'clock the earth trembled and the bottom of the river was pierced with a mighty upheaving of rocks and timbers. Up went the glittering masses of water until it seemed as if they would never stop. At a height of 200 feet the up lifted waters parted and fell back again into the river.

Mary Newton, the eleven-year-old daughter of General Newton, who as chief engineer has conducted the operations at Hell Gate since the start, touched the button that set free the electric current that exploded the submarine mines. She, when a mere baby, touched off the first Hell Gate explosion. The shock of the collapse was felt only slightly on the Astoria shore and the noise resembled a far distant subterranean thunder.

Where the flood rock had lifted its strong back a mass of broken wreck was seen on top of it all. The big derelict that had been left to its fate and a broken huge tank that had been left at the north end of the island still stood in its place, tilted over a little as it had settled when let down with the angry water from its aerial flight.

Immediately after the explosion a fire broke out in the wreck and burned lustily amid the seething waters. Four instantaneous photographs were taken by the officers of the corps of engineers from the firing point at Astoria. As far as it was possible to judge from the position and appearance of the wreck the explosion had been an entire success, though for the present the vicinity of the blasted rock is dangerous.

The Bank Statement.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

New York, Oct. 10.—The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Loans increase, $1,141,000; specie increase, $1,351,600; legal tenders decrease, $2,242,900; deposits increase, $1,938,900; circulation increase, $18,500; reserve decrease, $1,345,775. Banks now hold $40,153,423 in excess of the 25 per cent. rule.

An Earthquake Shock.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 10.—Three distinct shocks of earthquake were felt in this city last night between 11 and 12 o'clock. A loud rumbling sound preceded each shock. The direction of the disturbances was due north and south. Many people, scared by the noise and shaking windows and furniture, rushed for the street.

A Motion Overruled.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 10.—The supreme court to-day overruled the motion for a leave file petition of error in the case of Frederick Greiner, convicted of murder. He will be executed next Saturday.

Small-pox in Michigan.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

EAST TAWAS, Mich., Oct. 10.—Four men at Eaton's camp, recently from Canada, were discovered to have small-pox.

THE MARKETS.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Wheat, 87½@87½ cash; 88½@88½ Nov.; 90½@90½ Dec. Corn, 42½ cash and Oct. Oats, lower; 25½@25½ November; 29½ May. Rye, 60. Barley, 69. Flaxseed, $1.17½. Whisky, $1.10. Pork, $8.27½ cash and November; $8.35 Dec. Lard, easy; $6.05 cash; $5.95 November; $5.92½ year.

She Waked Up During the Singing. They were singing a pleasant song to a delightful tune. She waked from a troubled sleep and said, "Oh! stop that horrid singing." She explained that she had been having a dream, and an unpleasant one because she suffered from indigestion. No use of suffering from indigestion as long as you can get Brown's Iron Bitters. Mrs. Emma Williams, of Starkville, Miss., writes that Brown's Iron Bitters completely cured her daughter of indigestion.

James' $1.50 Cabinets warranted.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

WILL CURE

HEADACHE
INDIGESTION
BILIOUSNESS
DYSPEPSIA
NERVOUS PROSTRATION
MALARIA
CHILLS AND FEVERS
TIRED FEELING
GENERAL DEBILITY
PAIN IN THE BACK & SIDES
IMPURE BLOOD
CONSTIPATION
FEMALE INFIRMITIES
RHEUMATISM
NEURALGIA
KIDNEY AND LIVER
TROUBLES

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS
The Genuine has Trade Mark and Crossed Red
Lines on wrapper.
TAKE NO OTHER.

ACHES! PAINS!

"I ache all over!" What a common expression; and how much it means to many a poor sufferer! These aches have a cause, and more frequently than is generally suspected, the cause is the Liver or Kidneys. No disease is more painful or serious than these, and no remedy is so prompt and effective as

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

No remedy has yet been discovered that is so effective in all KIDNEY AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, etc., and yet it is simple and harmless. Science and medical skill have combined with wonderful success those herbs which nature has provided for the cure of disease. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system.

Don Thaddeus Stevens, the distinguished Congressman, once wrote to a fellow member who was suffering from indigestion and kidney disease: "Try Mishler's Herb Bitters, I believe it will cure you. I have used it for both indigestion and affection of the kidneys, and it is the most wonderful combination of medicinal herbs I ever saw."

MISHLER HERB BITTERS CO.,
535 Commerce St., Philadelphia.

Farber's Pleasant Worm Syrup Never Fails

LOTS OF PEOPLE SAY, "OH MY BACK!"

Here is Solid
A TESTIMONY
from Hard Working Men.

Machinist and Builder.
"I have been troubled years with kidney and bladder difficulty. After using four bottles of Hunt's (Kidney and Liver) REMEDY I have been completely cured."—William C. Clark, Mason and Builder, Auburn, N. Y.

• • • "Health is better than wealth." • • •

Machinist.
Mr. George Karg, Machinist, 1138 Ridge Ave., Philadelphia, Pa., says:—"My disease started when I was quite a young lad by having weak kidneys. I have used just six bottles of Hunt's (Kidney and Liver) REMEDY, and I solemnly proclaim, 'I feel like a new man.'"

• • • "Good counsel has no price, obey it." • • •

Mechanic.
Mr. Henry Williams, Mechanic, East Bridgeport, Conn., says:—"About two months ago I caught a heavy cold, which settled in my kidneys. I got a bottle of Hunt's (Kidney and Liver) REMEDY and with the first dose began to get well." • • • "Light suppers makes long lives." • • •

Railroad Man.
Frank B. Lee, office N. Y. C. & H. R. R. Little Falls, N. Y., June 8, 1903, says:—"My father, 62 years old, had severe kidney and bladder disease for 20 years, inflicting causing acute pain. The weakness was so great he was obliged to wear a rubber bag. Twelve bottles of Hunt's (Kidney and Liver) REMEDY completely cured him, and we consider it remarkable. We cheerfully recommend it."

• • • "Deeds are better than words." • • •

Hunt's (Kidney and Liver) REMEDY has stood the test of time. It has been before the public for twenty years, and has cured every year thousands of people suffering from various diseases of the Kidneys and Liver, and kindred disorders, who had failed to get relief from doctors and who expected never to be cured. Thousands of testimonials from such persons attest its value. Send for book.

• • • "Alls well that ends well." • • •

Sold by all druggists. Price, $1.25.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.
G. M. CRITTENTON, General Agent, N. Y.

CATARRH CREAM BALM.

Cleanses the Head.
Allays Inflammation. Heals the Sores. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell, hearing. A quick relief. A Positive Cure. A Particulate is applied into each nostril and is agreeable to use. 50c.

HAY-FEVER
Use ELY'S CREAM BALM.

Prepared by ELY BROTHERS, druggists, Oswego, N. Y.

Many a Lady

is beautiful, all but her skin; and nobody has ever told her how easy it is to put beauty on the skin. Beauty on the skin is Magnolia Balm.

The Sentinel.

PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING

THE SENTINEL BUILDING,
NO. 107 CALHOUN ST.
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA.

DELIVERED BY CARRIERS FOR TEN CENTS A WEEK.
MAIL SUBSCRIPTION FOUR DOLLARS & EIGHTY CENTS A YEAR, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
THE SENTINEL IS THE ONLY EVENING PAPER IN FORT WAYNE THAT GIVES THE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL,
PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING.
ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

• • • CORRESPONDENCE CONTAINING IMPORTANT NEWS SOLICITED.
ADDRESS ALL LETTERS AND ORDERS TO
E. A. K. HACKETT,
FORT WAYNE, IND.

The Daily Sentinel.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.
SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 1888.

GAZING HOMEWARD.

As Daniel Looked Toward Jerusalem, so Should the Christian Gaze Heavenward.

The World Has Windows Looking Out Upon Death and Perdition.

Saved Souls Must Turn Toward the Home Not Made With Hands.

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage preached Sunday morning in the Brooklyn Tabernacle on the subject "Windows Toward Jerusalem." Before the sermon he expounded the parable in Luke concerning the widow's plea before the unjust judge, and showed how God honored prayer. Sunday was communion Sabbath and numbers were added to the church membership, which now reaches considerably beyond three thousand. The opening hymn was:

Nearer, my God, to Thee,
E'en though it be
A cross that raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

The text of the sermon was from Daniel vi., 10: "His windows being open and his chamber toward Jerusalem." Dr. Talmage said: "The scoundrelly prince of Persia, urged on by political jealousy against Daniel, have succeeded in getting a law passed that whosoever prays to God shall be put under the paw and teeth of the lions, who are lashing themselves in rage and hunger up and down the stone cage, or putting their lower jaw on the ground, bellowing till the earth trembles. But the lionine threat did not hinder the devotions of Daniel, the cour de lion. These enemies might as well have a law that the sun should not draw water, or that the south wind should not sweep across a garden of magnolias, or that God should be abolished. They could not scare him with the red-hot furnaces and they can not now scare him with the lions.

As soon as Daniel hears of this enactment he leaves his office of secretary of state, with its upholstery of crimson and gold and comes down the white marble steps and goes to his own house. He opens his window and puts his shutters back and pulls the curtain aside so that he can look toward the sacred city of Jerusalem, and then prays. I suppose the people in the street gathered under and before his window and said: "Just see that man defying the law; he ought to be arrested," and the constabulary of the city rush to the police headquarters and report that Daniel is on his knees at the wide open window. "You are my prisoner," said the officer of the law, dropping a heavy hand on the shoulder of the kneeling Daniel. As the constables open the door of the cavern to thrust in their prisoner, they see the glaring eyes of the monsters. But Daniel becomes the first lion-tamer and they lick his hands and fawn at his feet, and that night he sleeps with the shaggy mane of a wild beast for his pillow, while the king, that night sleepless in the palace, has on him the paw and teeth of a lion he can not tame—the lion of a remorseful conscience.

What a picture it would be for some artist; Darius in the early dusk of morning, not waiting for footman or chariot, hastening to the den, all flushed and nervous and in deshabille, and looking through the crevices of the cage to see what had become of his prime minister. "What! no sound!" he says: "Daniel is surely devoured, and the lions are sleeping after their horrid meal, the bones of the poor man scattered across the floor of the cavern." With trembling voice Darius calls out: "Daniel!" No answer, for the prophet is yet in profound slumber. But a lion more easily awakened, advances, and with hot breath blown through the crevice, seems another man from under Daniel's head, and the prophet, waking up, comes forth to report himself unhurt and well.

OPEN TOWARD JERUSALEM.
But our text stands us at Daniel's window open toward Jerusalem. Why in that direction open? Jerusalem was his native land, and all the pomp of his Babylonish smoothes could not make him forget it. He came there from Jerusalem at eighteen years of age and he never visited it, though he lived to be eighty-five years. Yet when he wanted to arouse the deepest emotions and grandest aspirations of his heart he had his window open toward Jerusalem. There are many of you to-day who understand that without any exposition. This is getting to be a nation of foreigners. They have come into all occupations and professions. They sit in all churches. It may be twenty years ago since you got your naturalization papers and you may be thoroughly Americanized, but you can't forget the land of your birth, and your warmest sympathies go out toward it. Your windows are open toward Jerusalem. Your father and mother are buried there. It may have been a very humble home in which you were born, but your memory often plays around it, and you hope some day to go and see it—the hill, the tree, the brook, the house—the place so sacred, the floor from which you started off with parental blessing to make your own way in the world; and God only knows how sometimes you have longed to see the familiar places of your childhood and how in awful crises of life you would like to have caught a glimpse of the old wrinkled face that bent over you as you lay on the gentle lap, twenty, or forty or fifty years ago. You may have on this side of the sea risen in fortune, and like Daniel, have become great and may have come into prosperities which you could never have reached if you had stayed there and you may have many windows to your house, bay-windows and skylight windows of conservatory and windows on all sides, but you have at least one window open toward Jerusalem.

When the foreign steamer comes to the wharf you see the long line of sailors with shouldered mail-bags coming down the planks carrying as many letters as you might suppose would be enough for a year's correspondence, and this repeated again and again during the week. Multitudes of them are letters from home, and at all the post-offices of the land people will go to the window and anxiously ask for them, hundreds of thousands of persons finding that window of foreign mails the open window toward Jerusalem. Messages that say: "When are you coming home to see us? Brother has gone into the army. Sister is dead. Father and mother are getting very feeble. We are having a great struggle to get on here. Would you advise us to come to you, or will you come to us? All join in love, and hope to meet you, if not in this world, then in a better. Good-by!"

FATHERLAND.
Yes; yes; in all these cities and amid the flowering western prairies and on the slopes of the Pacific and amid the Sierras and on the banks of the "lagoon" and on the ranches of Texas, there is an uncounted multitude who, this hour, stand and sit and kneel with their windows open toward Jerusalem. Some of them played on the heather of the Scottish hills. Some of them were driven out by Irish famine. Some of them were accustomed at Lyons or Marseilles or Paris to see on the street Victor Hugo and Gambetta. Some chased the chamois among the Alpine precipices. Some plucked the ripe clusters from Italian vineyards. Some lifted their faces under the midnight sun of Norway. It is no dishonor to our land that they remember the place of their nativity. Miscreants would they be if, while they have some of their windows open to take in the free air of America and the sunlight of an atmosphere which no kingly despot has ever breathed, they forgot sometimes to open the window toward Jerusalem. No wonder that sometimes when the Swiss is far away from home at hearing the national air of his own country sung the malady of home sickness comes on him so powerfully as to cause his death. You have the example of the heroic Daniel of my text for keeping early memories fresh. Forget not the old folks at home. Write often and if you have surplus of means and they a deficit make practical contribution and rejoice that America is bound to all the world by ties of sanginity as is no other nation. Who can doubt but it is appointed for the evangelization of all lands? What a stirring, melting, gospelizing theory that all the doors of other nations are opened toward us while our windows are open toward them!

INFLUENCES.
But Daniel in the text kept this port-hole of his domestic fortress unclosed, because Jerusalem was the capital of sacred influences. There smoked the sacrifice. There was the Holy of Holies. There was the ark of the covenant. There stood the temple. We are all tempted to keep our windows open on the opposite side, toward the world, that we may see and hear and appropriate its

the world? Worshipers of the world instead of worshipers of God. Windows open toward Babylon; windows open toward Corinth; windows open toward Athens; windows open toward Sodom; windows open toward the flats instead of windows toward the hills. Sad mistake; for this world as a god is like something I saw the other day in the museum of Strassburg, Germany. The figure of a virgin in wood and iron. The victim in olden time was brought there and this figure would open its arms to receive him and once enfolded, the figure closed with a hundred knives and lances upon him and then afterward left him drop 180 feet sheer down. So the world first embraces its idolaters, then closes upon them with tortures and then lets them drop forever down.

The highest honor the world could confer was to make a man Roman emperor. But out of sixty-three emperors it allowed only six to die peacefully in their beds. The dominion of this world over multitudes is illustrated by the coins of many countries. They have their pieces of money which they call sovereigns and half-sovereigns, crowns and half-crowns, napoleons and half-napoleons, fredericks and double-fredericks and ducaats and isabellions, all of which names means not so much usefulness as dominion. The most of our windows open toward the exchange, towards the salon of fashion, toward the god of this world. In olden times the length of the English yard was fixed by the length of the arm of King Henry I., and we are apt to measure things by a variable standard and by the human arm that in the great crisis of life can give us no help. We need, like Daniel, to open our windows toward God and religion.

ON HIS KNEES.
But, mark you, that good lion-tamer is not standing at the window, but kneeling while he looks out. Most photographs are taken of those in standing or sitting posture. I now remember but one picture of a man kneeling, and that was David Livingstone, who, in the cause of God and civilization, sacrificed himself, and in the heart of Africa his servant, Majwara, found him in the tent by the light of a candle stuck on the top of a box, his head in hands upon the pillow, and dead on his knees. But here is a great lion-tamer living under the dash of the light and his hair disheveled of the breeze, praying. The fact is that a man can see further on his knees than standing on tip-toe. Jerusalem was about 550 statue miles from Babylon, and the vast Arabian desert shifted its sands between them. Yet through that open window Daniel saw Jerusalem, saw all between it, saw beyond, saw time, saw eternity, saw earth and saw heaven.

Would you like to see the way through your sins to pardon, through your troubles to comfort, through temptation to rescue, through dire sickness to immortal health, through night to day, through things terrestrial to things celestial, you will not see them till you take Daniel's posture. No cap of bone to the joints of the finger, no cap of bone to the joints of the elbow, but cap of bone to the knees, made so because the god of the body was the god of the soul, an especial provision for those who want to pray, and physiological structure joins with spiritual necessity in bidding us pray and pray and pray. In olden times the earl of Westmoreland said he had no need to pray, because he had enough pious tenants on his estate to pray for him; but all the prayers of church universal amount to nothing unless, like Daniel, we pray for ourselves.

O, men and women, bounded on one side by Shadrach's red-hot furnace, and the other by devouring lions, learn the secret of courage and deliverance by looking at that Babylonian window open toward the southwest. "Oh," you say, "that is the direction of the Arabian desert." Yes, but on the other side of the desert is God, is Christ, is Jerusalem, is Heaven. The Brussels lace is superior to all other lace; so beautiful, so multifarious, so expensive—four hundred francs a pound. All the world seek it. Do you know how it is made? The spinning is done in a dark room, the only light admitted through a small aperture, and that light falling directly on the pattern. And the finest specimens of Christian character I have ever seen or expect to see are those to be found in lives of all those windows have been darkened by bereavement and misfortune save one, but under that window of prayer the interlacing of divine workmanship went on until it was fit to deck a throne, a celestial embroidery, which angels admired and God approved.

JERUSALEM THE BRIDE.
But it is another Jerusalem toward which we now need to open our windows. The exiled evangelist of Ephesus saw it one day as the surf of the Icarian sea foamed and splashed over the boulders at his feet and his vision reminded me of a wedding day when the bride by sister and maid was having garlands twisted for her hair and jewels strung for her neck just before she puts her betrothed hand in the hand of her affianced. "I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God

the world? We would do well to think more of heaven. It is not a mere sunset sight. It is not a desolate outpost. As Jerusalem was the capital of Judah and Babylon the capital of the Babylonian monarchy, and London is the capital of Great Britain and Washington the capital of our own republic, the New Jerusalem is the capital of the universe. The king lives there and the royal family of the redeemed have their palaces there, and there is a congress of many nations and the parliament of all the worlds. Yea, as Daniel had kindred in Jerusalem of whom he had often thought, though he had left home when a very young man, perhaps father and mother and brothers and sisters still living, and was homesick to see them, and they belonged to the higher circles of royalty—Daniel had royal blood in his veins—so we have in New Jerusalem a great many kindred and we are sometimes homesick to see them and they are princes and princesses, in them the blood imperial and we do well to keep our windows open toward their eternal residence. It is a joy for us to believe that while we are interested in them they are interested in us. Much thought of heaven makes one heavenly. The airs that blow through that open window are charged with life, and sweep up to us aromas from gardens that never wither, under skies that never cloud, in a spring tide that never terminates. Compared with it all other things are dead failures.

MANY IDEAS OF HEAVEN.
Homer's heaven was an elysium which he describes as a plain at the end of the earth or beneath, with no snow or rainfall and the sun never goes down, and Rhadaman thus, the justest of men, rules. Hecoid's heaven is what he calls the islands of the blest, in the midst of the ocean, three times a year blooming with the most exquisite flowers and the air is tinted with purple, while games and music and horse-races occupy the time. The Scandinavian's heaven was the hall of Walhalla, where the god Odin gave unending wine suppers to earthy heroes and heroines. The Mohammedan's heaven passes its decades in over the bridge Al-Sirat, which is finer than a hair and sharper than a sword and then they are let loose into a riot of everlasting sensuality.

The American aborigines look forward to a heaven of illimitable hunting ground, partridge and deer and wild duck more than plentiful and the hounds never off the scent and the guns never missing fire. But the geographer has followed the earth round, and found no Homer's elysium. Voyagers have traversed the deep and found no Hecoid's islands of the blest. The Mohammedan's celestial debauchery and the Indian's eternal hunting ground for vast multitudes have no charm. But here-rolls in the bible heaven. No more sea—that is, no wide separation; no more night—that is, no insomnia; no more tears—that is, no heartbreak; no more pain—that is, dismissal of lancet and bitter draught and miasma and banishment of neuralgias and cataplexies and consumptions. All colors in the wall except gloomy black. All the music in the major key because celebrative and jubilant. River crystalline, gate crystalline, and skies crystalline, because every thing is clear and without doubt. White robes and that means sinlessness. Vials full of odors, and that means pure regalement of the senses. Rainbow, and that means the storm is over. Marriage supper, and that means gladdest festivity. Twelve manner of fruits, and that means luscious and unending variety. Harp, trumpet, grand march, anthem, amen and hallelujah in the same orchestra. Choral meeting, solo and overture meeting, antiphon and strophe joining dithyramb as they roll into the ocean of doxologies. And you and I may have all that and have it forever through Christ if we will let Him with the blood of one wounded hand rub out our sin and with the other wounded hand swing open the shining portals. Day and night keep your window open toward that Jerusalem. Sing about it. Pray about it. Think about it. Talk about it. Dream about it. Do not be inconsolable about your friends who have gone into it. Do not worry if something in your heart indicates that you are not far off from its causticities. Do not think that when a christian dies he stops, far he goes on.

An ingenious man has taken the heavenly furlongs as mentioned in revelation and calculated that there will be in heaven one hundred rooms, sixteen feet square, for each ascending soul, though this world should lose a hundred million yearly. But all the rooms of heaven will be ours, for they are family rooms and as no room in your house is too good for your children, so all the rooms of all the palaces of the heavenly Jerusalem will be free to God's children, and even the throne room will not be denied and you may run up the steps of the throne and put your hand on the side of the throne and sit down beside the king, according to the promise: "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne."

EXCEPT YE OVERCOME.
But you can not go in except as conquerors. Many years ago the Turks opened Jerusalem are our windows open. We would do well to think more of heaven. It is not a mere sunset sight. It is not a desolate outpost. As Jerusalem was the capital of Judah and Babylon the capital of the Babylonian monarchy, and London is the capital of Great Britain and Washington the capital of our own republic, the New Jerusalem is the capital of the universe. The king lives there and the royal family of the redeemed have their palaces there, and there is a congress of many nations and the parliament of all the worlds. Yea, as Daniel had kindred in Jerusalem of whom he had often thought, though he had left home when a very young man, perhaps father and mother and brothers and sisters still living, and was homesick to see them, and they belonged to the higher circles of royalty—Daniel had royal blood in his veins—so we have in New Jerusalem a great many kindred and we are sometimes homesick to see them and they are princes and princesses, in them the blood imperial and we do well to keep our windows open toward their eternal residence. It is a joy for us to believe that while we are interested in them they are interested in us. Much thought of heaven makes one heavenly. The airs that blow through that open window are charged with life, and sweep up to us aromas from gardens that never wither, under skies that never cloud, in a spring tide that never terminates. Compared with it all other things are dead failures.

ON HIS KNEES.
But, mark you, that good lion-tamer is not standing at the window, but kneeling while he looks out. Most photographs are taken of those in standing or sitting posture. I now remember but one picture of a man kneeling, and that was David Livingstone, who, in the cause of God and civilization, sacrificed himself, and in the heart of Africa his servant, Majwara, found him in the tent by the light of a candle stuck on the top of a box, his head in hands upon the pillow, and dead on his knees. But here is a great lion-tamer living under the dash of the light and his hair disheveled of the breeze, praying. The fact is that a man can see further on his knees than standing on tip-toe. Jerusalem was about 550 statue miles from Babylon, and the vast Arabian desert shifted its sands between them. Yet through that open window Daniel saw Jerusalem, saw all between it, saw beyond, saw time, saw eternity, saw earth and saw heaven.

Would you like to see the way through your sins to pardon, through your troubles to comfort, through temptation to rescue, through dire sickness to immortal health, through night to day, through things terrestrial to things celestial, you will not see them till you take Daniel's posture. No cap of bone to the joints of the finger, no cap of bone to the joints of the elbow, but cap of bone to the knees, made so because the god of the body was the god of the soul, an especial provision for those who want to pray, and physiological structure joins with spiritual necessity in bidding us pray and pray and pray. In olden times the earl of Westmoreland said he had no need to pray, because he had enough pious tenants on his estate to pray for him; but all the prayers of church universal amount to nothing unless, like Daniel, we pray for ourselves.

O, men and women, bounded on one side by Shadrach's red-hot furnace, and the other by devouring lions, learn the secret of courage and deliverance by looking at that Babylonian window open toward the southwest. "Oh," you say, "that is the direction of the Arabian desert." Yes, but on the other side of the desert is God, is Christ, is Jerusalem, is Heaven. The Brussels lace is superior to all other lace; so beautiful, so multifarious, so expensive—four hundred francs a pound. All the world seek it. Do you know how it is made? The spinning is done in a dark room, the only light admitted through a small aperture, and that light falling directly on the pattern. And the finest specimens of Christian character I have ever seen or expect to see are those to be found in lives of all those windows have been darkened by bereavement and misfortune save one, but under that window of prayer the interlacing of divine workmanship went on until it was fit to deck a throne, a celestial embroidery, which angels admired and God approved.

JERUSALEM THE BRIDE.
But it is another Jerusalem toward which we now need to open our windows. The exiled evangelist of Ephesus saw it one day as the surf of the Icarian sea foamed and splashed over the boulders at his feet and his vision reminded me of a wedding day when the bride by sister and maid was having garlands twisted for her hair and jewels strung for her neck just before she puts her betrothed hand in the hand of her affianced. "I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God

opened Jerusalem are our windows open. We would do well to think more of heaven. It is not a mere sunset sight. It is not a desolate outpost. As Jerusalem was the capital of Judah and Babylon the capital of the Babylonian monarchy, and London is the capital of Great Britain and Washington the capital of our own republic, the New Jerusalem is the capital of the universe. The king lives there and the royal family of the redeemed have their palaces there, and there is a congress of many nations and the parliament of all the worlds. Yea, as Daniel had kindred in Jerusalem of whom he had often thought, though he had left home when a very young man, perhaps father and mother and brothers and sisters still living, and was homesick to see them, and they belonged to the higher circles of royalty—Daniel had royal blood in his veins—so we have in New Jerusalem a great many kindred and we are sometimes homesick to see them and they are princes and princesses, in them the blood imperial and we do well to keep our windows open toward their eternal residence. It is a joy for us to believe that while we are interested in them they are interested in us. Much thought of heaven makes one heavenly. The airs that blow through that open window are charged with life, and sweep up to us aromas from gardens that never wither, under skies that never cloud, in a spring tide that never terminates. Compared with it all other things are dead failures.

MANY IDEAS OF HEAVEN.
Homer's heaven was an elysium which he describes as a plain at the end of the earth or beneath, with no snow or rainfall and the sun never goes down, and Rhadaman thus, the justest of men, rules. Hecoid's heaven is what he calls the islands of the blest, in the midst of the ocean, three times a year blooming with the most exquisite flowers and the air is tinted with purple, while games and music and horse-races occupy the time. The Scandinavian's heaven was the hall of Walhalla, where the god Odin gave unending wine suppers to earthy heroes and heroines. The Mohammedan's heaven passes its decades in over the bridge Al-Sirat, which is finer than a hair and sharper than a sword and then they are let loose into a riot of everlasting sensuality.

The American aborigines look forward to a heaven of illimitable hunting ground, partridge and deer and wild duck more than plentiful and the hounds never off the scent and the guns never missing fire. But the geographer has followed the earth round, and found no Homer's elysium. Voyagers have traversed the deep and found no Hecoid's islands of the blest. The Mohammedan's celestial debauchery and the Indian's eternal hunting ground for vast multitudes have no charm. But here-rolls in the bible heaven. No more sea—that is, no wide separation; no more night—that is, no insomnia; no more tears—that is, no heartbreak; no more pain—that is, dismissal of lancet and bitter draught and miasma and banishment of neuralgias and cataplexies and consumptions. All colors in the wall except gloomy black. All the music in the major key because celebrative and jubilant. River crystalline, gate crystalline, and skies crystalline, because every thing is clear and without doubt. White robes and that means sinlessness. Vials full of odors, and that means pure regalement of the senses. Rainbow, and that means the storm is over. Marriage supper, and that means gladdest festivity. Twelve manner of fruits, and that means luscious and unending variety. Harp, trumpet, grand march, anthem, amen and hallelujah in the same orchestra. Choral meeting, solo and overture meeting, antiphon and strophe joining dithyramb as they roll into the ocean of doxologies. And you and I may have all that and have it forever through Christ if we will let Him with the blood of one wounded hand rub out our sin and with the other wounded hand swing open the shining portals. Day and night keep your window open toward that Jerusalem. Sing about it. Pray about it. Think about it. Talk about it. Dream about it. Do not be inconsolable about your friends who have gone into it. Do not worry if something in your heart indicates that you are not far off from its causticities. Do not think that when a christian dies he stops, far he goes on.

An ingenious man has taken the heavenly furlongs as mentioned in revelation and calculated that there will be in heaven one hundred rooms, sixteen feet square, for each ascending soul, though this world should lose a hundred million yearly. But all the rooms of heaven will be ours, for they are family rooms and as no room in your house is too good for your children, so all the rooms of all the palaces of the heavenly Jerusalem will be free to God's children, and even the throne room will not be denied and you may run up the steps of the throne and put your hand on the side of the throne and sit down beside the king, according to the promise: "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne."

EXCEPT YE OVERCOME.
But you can not go in except as conquerors. Many years ago the Turks opened Jerusalem are our windows open. We would do well to think more of heaven. It is not a mere sunset sight. It is not a desolate outpost. As Jerusalem was the capital of Judah and Babylon the capital of the Babylonian monarchy, and London is the capital of Great Britain and Washington the capital of our own republic, the New Jerusalem is the capital of the universe. The king lives there and the royal family of the redeemed have their palaces there, and there is a congress of many nations and the parliament of all the worlds. Yea, as Daniel had kindred in Jerusalem of whom he had often thought, though he had left home when a very young man, perhaps father and mother and brothers and sisters still living, and was homesick to see them, and they belonged to the higher circles of royalty—Daniel had royal blood in his veins—so we have in New Jerusalem a great many kindred and we are sometimes homesick to see them and they are princes and princesses, in them the blood imperial and we do well to keep our windows open toward their eternal residence. It is a joy for us to believe that while we are interested in them they are interested in us. Much thought of heaven makes one heavenly. The airs that blow through that open window are charged with life, and sweep up to us aromas from gardens that never wither, under skies that never cloud, in a spring tide that never terminates. Compared with it all other things are dead failures.

ON HIS KNEES.
But, mark you, that good lion-tamer is not standing at the window, but kneeling while he looks out. Most photographs are taken of those in standing or sitting posture. I now remember but one picture of a man kneeling, and that was David Livingstone, who, in the cause of God and civilization, sacrificed himself, and in the heart of Africa his servant, Majwara, found him in the tent by the light of a candle stuck on the top of a box, his head in hands upon the pillow, and dead on his knees. But here is a great lion-tamer living under the dash of the light and his hair disheveled of the breeze, praying. The fact is that a man can see further on his knees than standing on tip-toe. Jerusalem was about 550 statue miles from Babylon, and the vast Arabian desert shifted its sands between them. Yet through that open window Daniel saw Jerusalem, saw all between it, saw beyond, saw time, saw eternity, saw earth and saw heaven.

Would you like to see the way through your sins to pardon, through your troubles to comfort, through temptation to rescue, through dire sickness to immortal health, through night to day, through things terrestrial to things celestial, you will not see them till you take Daniel's posture. No cap of bone to the joints of the finger, no cap of bone to the joints of the elbow, but cap of bone to the knees, made so because the god of the body was the god of the soul, an especial provision for those who want to pray, and physiological structure joins with spiritual necessity in bidding us pray and pray and pray. In olden times the earl of Westmoreland said he had no need to pray, because he had enough pious tenants on his estate to pray for him; but all the prayers of church universal amount to nothing unless, like Daniel, we pray for ourselves.

O, men and women, bounded on one side by Shadrach's red-hot furnace, and the other by devouring lions, learn the secret of courage and deliverance by looking at that Babylonian window open toward the southwest. "Oh," you say, "that is the direction of the Arabian desert." Yes, but on the other side of the desert is God, is Christ, is Jerusalem, is Heaven. The Brussels lace is superior to all other lace; so beautiful, so multifarious, so expensive—four hundred francs a pound. All the world seek it. Do you know how it is made? The spinning is done in a dark room, the only light admitted through a small aperture, and that light falling directly on the pattern. And the finest specimens of Christian character I have ever seen or expect to see are those to be found in lives of all those windows have been darkened by bereavement and misfortune save one, but under that window of prayer the interlacing of divine workmanship went on until it was fit to deck a throne, a celestial embroidery, which angels admired and God approved.

JERUSALEM THE BRIDE.
But it is another Jerusalem toward which we now need to open our windows. The exiled evangelist of Ephesus saw it one day as the surf of the Icarian sea foamed and splashed over the boulders at his feet and his vision reminded me of a wedding day when the bride by sister and maid was having garlands twisted for her hair and jewels strung for her neck just before she puts her betrothed hand in the hand of her affianced. "I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God

opened Jerusalem are our windows open. We would do well to think more of heaven. It is not a mere sunset sight. It is not a desolate outpost. As Jerusalem was the capital of Judah and Babylon the capital of the Babylonian monarchy, and London is the capital of Great Britain and Washington the capital of our own republic, the New Jerusalem is the capital of the universe. The king lives there and the royal family of the redeemed have their palaces there, and there is a congress of many nations and the parliament of all the worlds. Yea, as Daniel had kindred in Jerusalem of whom he had often thought, though he had left home when a very young man, perhaps father and mother and brothers and sisters still living, and was homesick to see them, and they belonged to the higher circles of royalty—Daniel had royal blood in his veins—so we have in New Jerusalem a great many kindred and we are sometimes homesick to see them and they are princes and princesses, in them the blood imperial and we do well to keep our windows open toward their eternal residence. It is a joy for us to believe that while we are interested in them they are interested in us. Much thought of heaven makes one heavenly. The airs that blow through that open window are charged with life, and sweep up to us aromas from gardens that never wither, under skies that never cloud, in a spring tide that never terminates. Compared with it all other things are dead failures.

MANY IDEAS OF HEAVEN.
Homer's heaven was an elysium which he describes as a plain at the end of the earth or beneath, with no snow or rainfall and the sun never goes down, and Rhadaman thus, the justest of men, rules. Hecoid's heaven is what he calls the islands of the blest, in the midst of the ocean, three times a year blooming with the most exquisite flowers and the air is tinted with purple, while games and music and horse-races occupy the time. The Scandinavian's heaven was the hall of Walhalla, where the god Odin gave unending wine suppers to earthy heroes and heroines. The Mohammedan's heaven passes its decades in over the bridge Al-Sirat, which is finer than a hair and sharper than a sword and then they are let loose into a riot of everlasting sensuality.

The American aborigines look forward to a heaven of illimitable hunting ground, partridge and deer and wild duck more than plentiful and the hounds never off the scent and the guns never missing fire. But the geographer has followed the earth round, and found no Homer's elysium. Voyagers have traversed the deep and found no Hecoid's islands of the blest. The Mohammedan's celestial debauchery and the Indian's eternal hunting ground for vast multitudes have no charm. But here-rolls in the bible heaven. No more sea—that is, no wide separation; no more night—that is, no insomnia; no more tears—that is, no heartbreak; no more pain—that is, dismissal of lancet and bitter draught and miasma and banishment of neuralgias and cataplexies and consumptions. All colors in the wall except gloomy black. All the music in the major key because celebrative and jubilant. River crystalline, gate crystalline, and skies crystalline, because every thing is clear and without doubt. White robes and that means sinlessness. Vials full of odors, and that means pure regalement of the senses. Rainbow, and that means the storm is over. Marriage supper, and that means gladdest festivity. Twelve manner of fruits, and that means luscious and unending variety. Harp, trumpet, grand march, anthem, amen and hallelujah in the same orchestra. Choral meeting, solo and overture meeting, antiphon and strophe joining dithyramb as they roll into the ocean of doxologies. And you and I may have all that and have it forever through Christ if we will let Him with the blood of one wounded hand rub out our sin and with the other wounded hand swing open the shining portals. Day and night keep your window open toward that Jerusalem. Sing about it. Pray about it. Think about it. Talk about it. Dream about it. Do not be inconsolable about your friends who have gone into it. Do not worry if something in your heart indicates that you are not far off from its causticities. Do not think that when a christian dies he stops, far he goes on.

An ingenious man has taken the heavenly furlongs as mentioned in revelation and calculated that there will be in heaven one hundred rooms, sixteen feet square, for each ascending soul, though this world should lose a hundred million yearly. But all the rooms of heaven will be ours, for they are family rooms and as no room in your house is too good for your children, so all the rooms of all the palaces of the heavenly Jerusalem will be free to God's children, and even the throne room will not be denied and you may run up the steps of the throne and put your hand on the side of the throne and sit down beside the king, according to the promise: "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne."

EXCEPT YE OVERCOME.
But you can not go in except as conquerors. Many years ago the Turks opened Jerusalem are our windows open. We would do well to think more of heaven. It is not a mere sunset sight. It is not a desolate outpost. As Jerusalem was the capital of Judah and Babylon the capital of the Babylonian monarchy, and London is the capital of Great Britain and Washington the capital of our own republic, the New Jerusalem is the capital of the universe. The king lives there and the royal family of the redeemed have their palaces there, and there is a congress of many nations and the parliament of all the worlds. Yea, as Daniel had kindred in Jerusalem of whom he had often thought, though he had left home when a very young man, perhaps father and mother and brothers and sisters still living, and was homesick to see them, and they belonged to the higher circles of royalty—Daniel had royal blood in his veins—so we have in New Jerusalem a great many kindred and we are sometimes homesick to see them and they are princes and princesses, in them the blood imperial and we do well to keep our windows open toward their eternal residence. It is a joy for us to believe that while we are interested in them they are interested in us. Much thought of heaven makes one heavenly. The airs that blow through that open window are charged with life, and sweep up to us aromas from gardens that never wither, under skies that never cloud, in a spring tide that never terminates. Compared with it all other things are dead failures.

ON HIS KNEES.
But, mark you, that good lion-tamer is not standing at the window, but kneeling while he looks out. Most photographs are taken of those in standing or sitting posture. I now remember but one picture of a man kneeling, and that was David Livingstone, who, in the cause of God and civilization, sacrificed himself, and in the heart of Africa his servant, Majwara, found him in the tent by the light of a candle stuck on the top of a box, his head in hands upon the pillow, and dead on his knees. But here is a great lion-tamer living under the dash of the light and his hair disheveled of the breeze, praying. The fact is that a man can see further on his knees than standing on tip-toe. Jerusalem was about 550 statue miles from Babylon, and the vast Arabian desert shifted its sands between them. Yet through that open window Daniel saw Jerusalem, saw all between it, saw beyond, saw

Floor Oil Cloths.

A Large Lot, 200 Pieces,
Just Received.

ROOT & COMPANY.

Place on sale in their large
Carpet Department
New Oil Cloths.

In pretty designs, at 25c, 30c, 40c and 50c a yard.
Unequaled in Quality, at the prices named.

Oil Cloth Squares!

Handsome patterns, bordered all around,
specially adapted for under stoves,
4, 5, 6, 8 and 10 ft. at 50c A PATTERN AND UP.

LinoleumS

In First and Second Qualities.

OUT DOOR MATS

At 50c each and up.

Rubber Mats.

We are showing all the latest

NOVELTIES IN CARPETINGS.

For the # FALL TRADE.

All the best makes will be found in our stock.

At Exceptionally Low Prices

And in Large Variety.

PYKE'S GROCERY,

80 Calhoun Street.

Extra Sugar Cured Hams,
Extra Boneless Hams,
Ex. Boneless Breakfast Bacon
Smoked Beef Tongue,
New French Peas,
New California Canned Fruits
New Evaporated Peaches,
New French Prunes,
New Pitted Cherries.

Aug 5-17

New York Portrait Gallery,

[Deutsche Gallery.]

No. 164 Calhoun Street,
OPPO. CATHEDRAL.

Nothing but first-class work done at this gallery. Prices as low as anywhere in the city. We make all our own work from locket size to life-size crayon. Open every day except Saturday.

ALBERT de LEMOS,

Sept 10-1mo

Manager.

RUPTURE

Cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer. Ease at once, no operation, no delay in business, tested hundreds of cures. Main office, 831 Arch st.
Phila. At Custer house, Fort Wayne, 9th and 10th of each month. June 13-July 17

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—House No. 44 West Wayne St., with all modern improvements. Inquire at Baltes' millinery store, 30 West Main street.
30-17

FOR RENT—Large brick house on corner of Wayne and Ewing streets. $35 per month.
Inquire of M. L. Graff. 23-17

WANTED.

WANTED—A position as Governess or Companion. Finished in instrumental and vocal music and can teach all kinds of latest fancy work. Home more of an object than salary. Can also give references from former places. Address, A. J. K., this office.
Sept 7-2w

WANTED—All persons to know that you can get books bound in fine style and on short notice at the Sentinel office.

WANTED—Young ladies in city or country to work for us at their homes; fascinating employment; no instructions to buy; work can be sent by mail (distance no objection); $5 to $8 per week can be made. No canvassing, particulars free, or sample of work mailed for four cents in stamps. Please address, Home Manufacturing Co., Boston, Mass. P. O.
Box 1016. 25d&w-3m

WANTED—An active man or woman in every county to sell our goods. Salary $75 per month and expenses, or commission.
Expenses in advance. Outfit free. For full particulars address, STANDARD SILVER WARE
Co., Boston, Mass. 25d&w-3m

The Daily Sentinel.

SAURDAY, OCT. 10, 1895.

THE CITY.

Luther Benson is fanning the sails of Parson Leonard over in Ohio.

D. Roderick will be given a benefit ball at Driscoll's hall Oct. 20.

M. V. B. Spencer is quite sick and must temporarily retire from business.

Mrs. Mar. Graff, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mr. M. L. Graff, the attorney.

Mrs. W. N. Webb and daughter returned yesterday from a protracted visit to the east.

The Ligonier fair occurs next week and then closes the season for northern Indiana fairs.

Pete Tonnellier opens his new variety theatre on Perry street, Toledo, on Monday evening next.

"Glen Miller," the trotting horse that came near dying at the Cambridge City races, is now all right.

Al Foote attended a meeting of polo managers at Logansport yesterday.
There will be a league in Indiana this year.

The many friends of Miss Katie Grimm will be glad to learn that she is in the city, the guest of her parents of 229
Madison street.

Charles J. Dambelle, ex-master mechanic of the Chicago and Atlantic road, has left Huntington and creditors to mourn his loss to the tune of $1,000.

The vast estate of Chief Justice Mathew Hale is now seeking heirs. An effort will be made to work Messrs. Bookwalter and Cooper into this fortune. They need it.

Statements to the contrary notwithstanding, train agents yet infest the Wabash road and the passenger conductors are placed under closer surveillance than ever.

"That genial, whole souled Prof.
Moses Lantley, of Fort Wayne, was in town Tuesday, and of course we smoked a ten center," say the Wawaka correspondent of the Kendallville Standard.

Fireman Thomas Cunningham, of the Wabash, has accepted a position in the shops of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan railroad, at Wabash. He removed to that city with his family this week.

The month of September was a very fair one for Wabash train men. Conductor Stevens made 3,625 miles which will make over $108. This is the best record among the conductors for that month.

Last Tuesday night the Jenny Electric Light company completed its system of lighting West Indianapolis so far that fourteen of the eighteen lights were in effective operation. There remain four to place and complete.

Master Mechanic Morris, of the Wabash, has issued orders that regular engineers and firemen who are idle because of repairs of their engines, shall be added to the extra board while their engines are in the shops.

James Nolan, the section boss on the Wabash who was fired last March for alleged negligence in maintaining the way, at Wabash, and for permitting a hand car to get in the way of a freight train, has been reinstated.

D. J. H. Leatherman, who figured in a matrimonial affair here, tried to wed a rich widow of Greensburg, Ind. He subsequently blackmailed the lady and is in jail there for his work. The doctor is a daisy, but blows his wealth in on faro.

General Hascall, of Goshen, was yesterday granted a divorce from his wife, to whom he had been married but one year. She received $5,200 alimony.
General Hascall is well known here and was prominent at the recent encampment in this city.

"The oysters are better this season than for years," said the proprietor of a prominent restaurant to a SENTINEL reporter to-day. "They are also plentiful and are coming in from all points in abundance. The prospects for the season are very good."

A plausible individual giving the name of Jeffrey, and alleging that he was employed by the Western Union Telegraph company to reset poles along the Wabash road, victimized a number of parties at Andrews last week. He borrowed a considerable sum and then jumped the town.

The new Inter-State Telegraph company, in connection with the Grand Rapids and Indiana and the Baltimore and Ohio, is now completed and ready for business to Battle Creek, and is being pushed as rapidly as possible to Jackson and other important cities of Michigan.

"J. H. Lones has also caught the improvement contagion and is now arranging to surround his handsome residence property with a good substantial iron fence. We think Mr. Lones acted wisely when he purchased a home in Warsaw, and we feel sure that he will become one of the active and public spirited citizens of the place," says the Warsaw Times.

No courts were in session to-day.
There was no police court this morning.

Two years ago yesterday Sam McDonald was executed.

Thomas Bell and Aban Mars have been licensed to marry.

Col. C. A. Zollinger, state pension agent, is at Chicago.

Dan Harmon ran his wheel of fortune
at the Kendallville fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearce are the guests of relatives at Lancaster, Ohio.

The men employed in the Bass and Murray foundries got their monthly pay to-day.

Dr. Schutt, George Ohneck and several others went to the Catholic picnic at Gerard.

Col. Jim Wilkinson now has a first-class livery stable in connection with the Hedekin house.

The balloon ascension at White's grove to-morrow afternoon will attract thousands to the spot.

The sudden change in the weather in the last few days has caused the death of a great many pet and wild birds.

A new bulletin board will be placed in the Pittsburg depot marking the arrival and departure of trains.

The people of Monroeville, says the Breeze, want to hang all horse thieves caught about that village.

Mrs. Samuel Wagenhals his home
from a pleasant health trip to Cresson, Pa., summit of the Allegheny mountains.

Wm. Macke, a young man of Adams county, fell a distance of thirty feet to the earth from a tree and received fatal injuries.

Hon. A. P. Edgerton went to Hicksville to-day. Mr. Edgerton is now prominently mentioned for civil service commissioner.

Mrs. Lucy Phillips and daughter, Miss Edith, go to Crawfordsville Monday. Miss Edith will enter a convent school there.

Rev. Father Guendling, chaplain of the Catholic Orphan asylum, at Lafayette, is in the city the guest of the episcopal residence.

The Northern Indiana Poultry association will meet next Monday at the office of Welch & Baker, on Calhoun street, to fix the premium list for the next exhibition.

Mayor Muhler, several members of the council and a number of invited guest went south on the Muncie to-day.
They will go to Cincinnati and Louisville.

Harry Hammill will open his new house of call next Saturday. The fixtures are to be the finest in the west and are carved from Persian ash with a floor to match.

The Gazette and News, after booming
Col. C. A. Zollinger to the skies for a few weeks past, now publish articles reflecting on his democracy. This is not consistency.

Mrs. Dr. W. H. Meyers is visiting her relatives at Indianapolis. Mrs. Meyers has made host of friends here by her untiring labors for the cause of charity and the city hospital.

Oscar Riley, a lad whose papa lives at
No. 65 West Superior street, tumbled from a Nickel Plate engine yesterday and was scratched about the head. He is ready for another act to-day.

"Prof. Louis Mahler, of Fort Wayne, is in the city. The professor will organize a dancing class here soon. He is highly recommended by the citizens of Fort Wayne, where he is located. Those who delight to dance could not place themselves in better hands for instruction," says the Huntington Herald.

It is estimated that a man in fifty years sleeps about 6,000 days, works 6,000, eats 2,000, spends 800 in walking, is sick about 500 days, and the balance of his existence is spent in amusement.
This estimate does not include morning newspaper reporters, who sleep pretty much all the time.

A musical, literary and dramatic entertainment, complimentary to Rev. E.
Sorin, C. S. C., well known here, and superior-general of the order of the Holy Cross, will be given in Washington hall,
University of Notre Dame, at South Bend, on Monday, October 12, at 8:30
p. m., by members of the Englossian association.

Some one set fire to the stable in the rear of Lew Clark's Oliver house last night and the structure was gutted.
The walls stand. The barn was of brick and both new and commodious. It had been erected at a cost of $1,100 and there was an insurance of $800 in the Harding agency, enough to repair all the losses or to rebuild the structure.

The Chicago East-bound Passenger committee has agreed that delegates paying full fare to the general council of the Evangelical Lutheran church, to be held at Philadelphia, Oct. 15, will be returned at a fare of $6.10, being one-third of the standard limited fare from Fort Wayne to Philadelphia, this reduced rate to be given only on presentation of the official certificate of this committee, properly filled out and signed by the Rev. Sidney L. Harkey, secretary Toledo, Ohio.

THE STATE SYNOD.

The Presbyterian Ministers in Convention at Logansport—The Committees.

The Presbyterian synod convened at 8:30 yesterday morning in Logansport, and engaged in an hour's devotional exercises. Rev. J. F. Kendall, moderator, poke of the topic as laid down on the program, viz: "Separation and Readiness."
His remarks were directed mainly to the ministry belonging to the Indiana synod. The reverend gentleman's remarks were very impressive, and the audience was visibly affected by the discourse. At the close of devotional exercises the moderator called the synod to the regular business before it.

The following committees were appointed by the moderator:

Fort Wayne Presbytery—Rev. J. R.
Mitchell and Elder Hugh Boyd.

Committee on Boards and Overtures—
Charles Little, D.D.; Revs. Edward
Barr and J. S. Craig, D.D., and Elders
J. A. Allen and S. B. Davis.

Judicial Committee—Dr. J. F. Tuttle, Revs. D. W. Moffatt and J. A. Roudthaler.

Committee on Revision—Isaac M.
Hughes, D.D., Ransom E. Howley, J.
R. Court and J. P. Kingsley.

Committee on Absence—T. E. Hughes
and J. B. Smith.

Committee on Nominations—J. R.
Whalen and Theodore W. McCoy.

Committee on Sabbath Observance—
J. D. Thomas, J. L. McNair and W. H.
Pugh.

The session to-day was to be of a business nature. To-night Rev. R. H.
Allen, D. D., of Pittsburg, will speak of "Freedmen," and Elder R. P. Effinger, of Peru, will discourse on "Ministerial Relief." The session will last until Monday.

That Terrible Drain

which scrofula has upon the system must be arrested, and the blood must be purified, or serious consequences will ensue.
For purifying and vitalizing effects,
Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found superior to any other preparation. It expels every trace of impurity from the blood, and bestows new life and vigor upon every function of the body, enabling it to entirely overcome disease.

Owners of faded plush goods can brighten them by sponging them with chloroform.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
Lead&wly.

A colored woman won the prize for cooking at the recent Orleans county (New Jersey) fair.

Hay fever. I was severely afflicted with hay fever for 25 years. I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and the effect was marvelous. It is a perfect cure.—Wm. T. Carr, Presbyterian pastor, Elizabeth, N. J.
Price 50 cents.

I was afflicted with hay fever for seven years—Ely's Cream Balm cured me entirely.—H. D. Callihan, I. & St. L. R. R., Terre Haute, Ind.

Hay fever—One and one-half bottles of Ely's Cream Balm entirely cured me of hay fever of ten years' standing. Have had no trace of it for two years.—Albert A. Perry, Smithboro, N. Y. Price fifty cents.

Dr. L. A. Palmer, Westbury, N. Y., says: "Hunt's Remedy is the best medicine for dropsy. It has almost raised the dead."

Dr. A. W. Brown, Mystic, Conn., says: "I have a case of dropsy resulting from heart disease which Hunt's Remedy relieved at once."

AUGUST REILING,
BLACKSMITH AND MACHINIST,
70 PEARL ST., CORNER EWING.
Making and repairing of locks, models and safes are specialties. Also, other kinds of jobbing done. 5-2w

LOOK AT THEM!

IT WILL COST YOU NOTHING.

Our Great Display of

BRIGHT, NEW AND DESIRABLE SELECTIONS

—OF—

Stylish Suits and Overcoats!

Pronounced by All Lookers to be Satisfactory in Quality!

Satisfactory in Style!

Satisfactory in Price!

INSPECTION SOLICITED.

PIXLEY & CO.

Fort Wayne Talent Agency.

Prof. J. F. Kinsey, at the present principal of the music department of Fort Wayne college, and at present the president of the Postoria, Ohio, College of Music, will conduct a class in vocal music in the U. B. church, at Lafayette, commencing Monday evening, Oct. 12,
at 7:30, and continuing every evening for one week. Price per scholar for the entire time $1.00, and the use of books gratis.

Professor Kinsey is the author of the following singing books: "Boquet of Melody," "Singers' Delight," "Convention King," and "Golden Shore," together with two new books now in course of preparation.

As a cure for Sore Throat and Coughs,
"Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been thoroughly tested, and maintain their good reputation.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

To-Night, Friday, Oct. 9,
Miss IDA VAN CORTLAND,
In "Forget-Me-Not."

Prices—10, 20 and 30c. Reserved seats at Woodworth's drug store.

MASONIC TEMPLE.

J. H. SIMONSON, Manager

ONE NIGHT ONLY,

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14.

The Latest Laughing Success,

Lester and Williams,

Presenting a new tidal wave of merriment.

A Parlor Match,

By Chas. Hoyt, author of "Brunch of Keys," "A Rag Baby,"
"A Tin Soldier," Etc.

THE ORIGINAL INNOCENT KID.

JENNIE YEAMAN'S.

So funny you can't describe it.

Box office open Monday at 11 a. m.

Prices 35, 50 and 75 cents.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ANY WELL RATED BUSINESS HOUSE

in city or country, with banking facilities, who may be embarrassed or desirous of obtaining temporary accommodation on their paper, can secure same by addressing Absolutely Confidential, Box 2517, New York.

A BIG OFFER. To introduce them we will give away 1000 self-operating Washing Machines. If you want one send us your name, P. O. and express office at once.
THE NATIONAL CO., 31 Dey St., N. Y.

DEAFNESS its CAUSES and CURE, by one who was deaf 28 years. Treated by most of the noted specialists of the day with no benefit. Cured himself in 3 months, and since then hundreds of others by same process. A plain, simple and successful home treatment. Address T. S. PAGE, 128 East 26th street, New York City.

Parker's Tonic!

A Pure Family Medicine that Never Intoxicates.

If you are a lawyer, minister or business man exhausted by mental strain or anxious cures do not take intoxicating stimulants, but use Parker's Tonic.

If you have dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney or urinary complaints, or if you are troubled with any disorder of the lungs, stomach, bowels, blood or nerves you can be cured by Parker's Tonic.

CAUTION!—Refuse all substitutes. Parker's Tonic is composed of the best remedial agents in the world, and is entirely different from preparations of ginger alone. Send for circular. HISCOX & CO.,
sept30-4w 163 William St., New York.

WHEAT Baking Powder.

(GOLD MEDAL AT NEW ORLEANS.)

Endorsed by the leading Hotels

in the Country.

Approved by the Government Chemists for the Indian Commission.

MARTIN KALBELEISCH'S SONS,
Established 1859. NEW YORK.

PHOSACID.

June 10-wed&sat mo

TAYLOR'S OF MAN.

All Require at Some Age
TAYLOR'S
CHEROKEE REMEDY
of Sweet Gum and Mullein.

1st STAGE—COLDS.
A neglected cold is attendant with so many dangerous results, that it should be attended to at once.
Give Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein.

2d STAGE—CROUP.
This night-fetid to children and horror to parents may attack your household at any time. Be prepared with that speedy relief, Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum
and Mullein.

3d STAGE—WHOOPIING COUGH.
This is one of the most annoying and painful of all bronchial troubles to children, lasting about six weeks, and the terrible spasms can be alleviated, and the child be relieved, by the use of Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein.

4th STAGE—COUGHS.
A slight cough, when neglected, may settle on the Lungs, and Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption be the result.
It should therefore have attention at once,
by the use of Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein.

5th STAGE—BRONCHITIS.
This is almost as fatal as Consumption if not attended to in its early stages. Any evil results may be cured by the prompt use of Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum
and Mullein.

6th STAGE—ASTHMA.
A most suffering trouble in which the air-passes of the lungs are obstructed.
This severe form of asthma can be cured by the use of Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein.

7th STAGE—CONSUMPTION.
Dr. Quilman, the leading physician on Lung and Bronchial troubles, of Great Britain, recommends Mullein as a powerful stimulant
to the lungs, and as a powerful expectorant.
The Sweet Gum stimulates the patient to aid expectoration, and relieve the early morning cough attendant in this disease.
Every consumptive should use Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein.

